Chairman’s Message

2018年，“Hygge”和“Querencia”这两个词一语双关，引发韩国社会的共鸣。“Hygge”就是虽然微小但确实可以实现的幸福，“Querencia”则指的是为了幸福而采取的行动。是只属于你一个人的空间。在这样的空间里，疲惫的身体和心灵可以重获空灵。这两个关键词也并非指不可及的未来，而是指藏在现下的希望。不容错过当下这一刻的幸福。

可以说，百乐达斯城积极应时代需求。作为一家涵盖艺术、娱乐及餐饮于一体的休闲度假村，我们提供一个舒适的环境，让来自世界各地的客人在这里度过一段难忘的旅程。让人生更加丰富。

第三期《PARADISE CITY》杂志以“Celebration (庆典)”为主题，介绍了各式各样的庆祝场合让你能够享受百乐达斯城愉快地度过人生中大大小小的庆祝日。

现在就让第三期《PARADISE CITY》杂志成为你的指南和参考吧，希望您可以凭借这本杂志筹划一个特别的日子。我相信，与百乐达斯城相伴的瞬间，将会成为您终身难忘的重要日子。

And it is not just in the future, but also hidden in the present.

The guest list for this wedding resembled the roster of a major awards ceremony. Close friends and celebrities, Lee Kwang-soo and Yoo Ah-in, delivered moving wedding speeches, while Park Bo-gum wowed the crowd with a piano performance. The wedding attracted attention from many entertainment fans when longtime friend Zhang Ziyi dropped by to congratulate the couple on their big day.

These two stars made their vows in a cathedral in Seoul. The lovebirds delivered handwritten letters, and held a low-key ceremony — another big surprise, following their rather sudden wedding announcement. It is said that Kim Tae-hee wanted a simple ceremony, and wore a perfectly fitted custom dress that she designed together with her stylist.

As you might expect from an A-list power couple like this, the duo's wedding was the definition of glamor. Lee Min-jung wore a dress by Marchesa, well favored brand among Hollywood actresses, and was the first to wear as a Korean celebrity. The couple also exchanged Chopard's Happy Bride wedding bands, the only rings of their kind in Korea.

Read up on what happened at some of the most influential Korean celebrity weddings, inspiring a host of courting couples.
It may be too early to call, but Seohyun is already a strong candidate for Woman of the Year 2018. So far this year, she has emceed the globally acclaimed North-South Korean concert, ‘Spring is in the Air,’ where she won acclaim for hosting the event with elegance and sincerity. She also continues to receive many accolades for her acting work. See what else is in store for this talented star.
Spring is in the Air

Spring is in the Air was aired. Seohyun says the event entailed “moment after moment of unforgettable emotion.” One particular moving highlight was the event’s closing performance, when North and South Korean choirs sang together, hand in hand. Seohyun notes “It felt like the North and South Korean singers, and the North Korean people in the audience, came together as one.” Seohyun’s own rendition of the North Korean melody, “The Evergreen Willow,” was another moment that brought vivid emotions to the hearts of viewers watching on live TV. She explains, “Actually, I had caught a terrible cold just before the performance and I was having trouble speaking. I was really worried. But once I got up on the stage, the audience cheered me on so enthusiastically that I found the strength I needed to sing.” There is no doubt that Seohyun was a good choice as the event’s emcee, a role she filled with honesty and devotion. Indeed, she may have won hearts as a K-pop star, but she has also shown that she has plenty of other talents.

TV Drama “Time” and PARADISE CITY

This year has been one of Seohyun’s most memorable in terms of acting. In May last year, she won popularity when she played the lead character in MBC’s “Bad Thief Good Thief.” Seohyun will also play the lead in upcoming MBC Wednesday–Thursday evening drama, “Time.” Seohyun says she aspires to create “a serious program that everyone can relate to, dealing with concepts about how limited time really is.” She adds, “I urge everyone to check out ‘Time’ and see what the great director, writer, and talented cast have managed to produce. I hope my performances will make each moment feel truly real for viewers.” PARADISE CITY is also scheduled to make an appearance in “Time.” Seohyun explains, “It serves as the important location for a key scene featuring the male and female protagonists. The beautiful PARADISE CITY is the perfect setting for the turbulent story that unfolds in the scene.” Seohyun also plans to host a fan meeting at PARADISE CITY on her birthday this year. She says, “My fans are so loyal and supportive. That’s why I want to extend an invitation to everyone. I’d love to see everyone at my birthday party.”

26 Years of Happiness

Seohyun’s time nowadays is filled with, well, “Time.” She notes, “I am completely in character these days as the lead role, Seol Ji-hyun. I would say that this biggest interest right now is acting. My character is a keen cook, so I had to take cooking lessons. It was really fun! I am really into both acting and cooking now,” she says. Seohyun is also something of a bookworm. She cites British philosopher Bertrand Russell’s “The Conquest of Happiness” as a great read, saying, “The book gives readers the chance to contemplate what true happiness looks like.” Seohyun turns 26 this year, and says she is thinking seriously about her future. “I am working on choosing a path for my life, now that I’m starting the second half of my 20s. I don’t think I have made any firm decisions yet. But I am learning more about what responsibility means with every day that goes by.”

II. Family Wedding Planning – RAUK

The first meal your parents and future in-laws have together can be awkward, especially if you choose an inappropriate venue. Hotel restaurants are an obvious choice, but you may need some things done differently. Ideally, you will want somewhere classy and elegant, where the atmosphere is not stuffy, and a selection of food that meets all tastes. Such combinations can be hard to find unless you are heading to RAKU at PARADISE CITY. With cozy yet luxurious private rooms, there can be no better environment for quiet conversations, along with mouthwatering contemporary Japanese cuisine and top-notch service.

III. Bridal Showers – PERRIER-JOUËT LOUNGE

Many women in the States throw bridal showers in the days leading up to their weddings, and this custom is gaining wide popularity in Asia as well. On the third floor of RUBIK is the Perrier-Jouët Lounge, an ideal venue for a ladies’ night like no other. Luxurious and romantic, the flower and butterfly décor provides a great backdrop for pictures. With a bistro of Perrier-Jouët wedding banquet champagne on the table, this spa venue also boasts the longest wedding aisle in Korea, stretching over 39 meters to 720 guests, ideal for grand weddings with plenty of guests. The venue is not stuffy, and a selection of food that meets all tastes. Such combinations can be hard to find unless you are heading to RAKU at PARADISE CITY.

IV. Wedding Ceremony – GRAND BALLROOM

You will want to get everything just right with your choice of location for your wedding ceremony. With a wide selection of stylish banquet rooms in various sizes, couples can customize every single aspect of their big day. The GRAND BALLROOM is an elegant hall that holds up to 720 guests, ideal for grand weddings with plenty of guests. The venue also boasts the longest wedding aisle in Korea, stretching over 39 meters, with a ceiling that reaches up to eight meters. Adorned with beautiful decorations, the built-in stage and gold chandeliers are picture-perfect for the big day. Its spacious foyer is also a great place to host cocktail reception or a walk-through wedding photo gallery. For a more intimate setting, the SAPPHIRE and EMERALD ROOMS are recommended. With the same dazzling gold motif as the GRAND BALLROOM, the luxurious SAPPHIRE ROOM can comfortably seat up to 220 guests – ideal for a private, house wedding atmosphere. The EMERALD ROOM, which seats 140 guests, has luminous green walls that welcome guests into a wonderful garden wedding. You will surely want to provide your guests with great food, and the selection at PARADISE CITY offers plenty of variety. From full-course meals to French cuisine and Chinese specialties, PARADISE CITY provides them all, prepared by some of the best chefs in Korea.

Deciding to have your wedding at PARADISE CITY means your big day will be unique and customized to your needs. PARADISE CITY’s wedding planners work closely with clients carefully choosing the right styling and décor for the big occasion. What’s more, the one-stop wedding planning service helps you prepare every moment of your big day and the days leading up to it, from bridal shower to ceremony and after parties. Soak in the festivities throughout the day and end with a real bang at RUBIK, a live music and entertainment bar. Now one of hottest venues in Korea after BIGBANG’s Taeyang and Min Hye-rin held their after party, RUBIK is the venue for an ultimate night out.

VI. Wedding Night – POOL VILLA

Couples nowadays prefer to spend a night at a luxury hotel after their ceremony, instead of rushing off to the airport to begin their honeymoon. Indeed, taking a night to unwind after all the excitement of your wedding day is highly recommended. You will want to stay somewhere special on your first night together as a married couple, as the very best hotels and rooms should be on top of your list. Spending a romantic night at a Pool Villa or Suite Room offers even more comfort than your own house. PARADISE CITY offers the Deluxe Pool Villa, with its private pool; the Grand Deluxe Pool Villa, the very definition of artistic luxury; the ever so elegant Royal Suite; and the world-class VIP Presidential Suite Room.

VII. Off to Honeymoon! – INCHEON AIRPORT

After spending a romantic first night together in the relaxing Suite Room, newlyweds embark on their honeymoon adventure the following day. But if you are staying at PARADISE CITY, you don’t need to rush. Incheon International Airport is just five minutes by car. As they say, the way you begin your trip often dictates the whole tone of your honeymoon. So starting your romantic day off with a convenient, stress-free journey to the airport should get you well prepared to start your adventure!

Weddings you normally only see in movies can become a reality at Paradise City. That was certainly the case when BIGBANG member Taeyang tied the knot with actress Min Hyo-rin in Paradise City’s Grand Ballroom on February 3, 2018. Join us as we take a closer look at some of the wedding’s highlights.

Taeyang and Min Hye-rin, the hottest star couple in the Korean entertainment scene, held the biggest celebrity event of the year with their wedding. The day began at a church, where the couple held a ceremony behind closed doors, with some of the country’s biggest stars in attendance. Paying their respects were Taeyang’s fellow BIGBANG members, and other YG Entertainment stars, including BLACKPINK, Winner, CL, and Sandara Park, as well as a whole host of variety TV personalities and big-screen actors. After the ceremony, the couple held an elegant private reception at the Grand Ballroom in Paradise City. The head of YG Entertainment, Yang Hyun-suk, posted a video on social media with a caption stating that he was at the “magnificent Taeyang’s wedding reception venue,” leading to plenty of online buzz about the reception’s fantastic location. Photos of PSY, CL, and other stars enjoying the festivities at Paradise City also created a social media stir.
Taeyang and Min Hyo-rin's wedding reception. PARADISE CITY's GRAND BALLROOM was transformed into a fantasy world for the special day.
Multi-award-winning fashion designer Youngsong Martin was drafted as the wedding planner, drawing attention from both design and movie fans. In addition to her design experience, Youngsong Martin has made a name for herself as a creative genius in wedding planning. She was the designer behind the memorable forest wedding scene between the characters Edward and Bella in the movie “Twilight Breaking Dawn Part 1.” Taeyang wanted to provide his fiancée with the wedding of her dreams, and embarked on a personal quest to track down Youngsong Martin. The designer said, “Taeyang and I are not business associates. We met through a mutual friend who lives in America. My first impression of him was that he was a bright, keen young man.”

Love-struck Taeyang asked Youngsong Martin to design the sort of wedding most people only dream of. He is said to have told Youngsong Martin: “Whatever Hyo-rin wants!”

Min Hyo-rin was besotted with Youngsong Martin’s set design in the wedding scene in “Breaking Dawn Part 1,” and, thanks to Taeyang’s influence, the designer agreed to fly in from the States to oversee proceedings. Indeed, she managed to weave some of her unique magic, transforming the GRAND BALLROOM in PARADISE CITY into an enchanted forest – a perfect backdrop for the celebrity wedding of the year, and a smashing success with all the guests.

1 – Wedding Aisle

2 – Dress Chair
The venue may be large, but no effort has been spared when it comes to attention to detail. At the reception, the chairs were draped with soft, silky chiffon textiles. A trailing veil, like the bride’s gown, also created a beautiful silhouette for a timeless look. In keeping with the forest wedding motif, flower appliqué was used to decorate the tablecloths.

3 – Flower Arrangements
Even the high ceiling of the GRAND BALLROOM received attention. Wisterias were hung from the ceiling and golden chains adorned the chandeliers, emitting a crystalline sparkle, like a dew-filled garden on a spring morning. Long tables flanked the aisle, decorated with white Ranunculus and accessories. Each table featured a circular centerpiece, with roses, anemone, tulips, apricot flowers and transparent candlesticks.

4 – Foyer
The vast foyer of the GRAND BALLROOM was also transformed. Guests were treated with a light cocktail reception before entering the wedding reception, and the foyer hosted a mini exhibition of photos of the bride and groom. The foyer is so spacious that the organizers were able to create a private and secure entrance, helping separate wedding guests from other patrons.
This stunning reception featured by Youngsong Martin. Youngsong Martin has orchestrated parties for Michelle Obama, Jennifer Lopez, Oprah Winfrey and dozens of other A-list celebrities. To name a few, former First Lady Michelle Obama turned to Youngsong Martin for a chic White House party, and pop sensation Jennifer Lopez also sought the designer’s help for a surprise party for her husband. Her client list also includes the likes of Oprah Winfrey, Elton John and Stevie Wonder.

Halloween Party

Like Christmas, Halloween comes just once a year. Although the holiday is still relatively new in Korea, it is quickly becoming one of hottest celebrations on the calendar. Halloween last year was a hit at PARADISE CITY, where guests were treated to a Halloween Masquerade. The entire Yeongjong Island filled with partygoers, all in fantastically ghoulish costumes, ready to mark the spookiest day of the year. A make-up booth provided plenty of creepy fun. There were also complementary masks and a host of other events to help guests get into the Halloween spirit.

There were also top tunes: DJs D.W.D, MYO, Primit and BEQUE played high-tempo hits, while bands like Under Cloud and Watch Your Step took to the stage at RUBIK as the party went on. There was also some fun Halloween food, along with four seasonal Halloween cocktails: the Halloqueen, the Floating Eyeball, the Ghost Purple and the Dark Presso. This year’s Halloween at PARADISE CITY promises to be just as fun – and every bit as spooky!

Music fans had plenty to cheer about too, with Na Yoon-gwon and Dynamic Duo performing some of their biggest hits.

Chef Kim Sun-mi is helping win RAKU plenty of recognition from the Korean media. She has made a name for herself as the first female head chef of a Korean five-star hotel’s Japanese restaurant, and many in the culinary industry now look to her as a source of creative insight and innovation.

For over 20 years, Chef Kim worked in the Shilla Hotel’s Japanese restaurant, Ariake, and her reputation has brought a wide range of diners to RAKU at PARADISE CITY.

The secret to her success is adhering to authentic recipes, while also infusing sushi creations with her own creative flair. Among the diverse offerings at RAKU, standouts include the mosaic sushi platter, the tomato seafood salad and assorted tempura. With a colorful, elegant touch, Chef Kim and her team have put a new, modern spin on traditional Japanese dining experience. These factors mean that anyone looking to celebrate their anniversaries with something special, need look no further. Seating options include tables in the main dining hall, private rooms and a central sushi bar. Sit side by side with your loved one and enjoy premium sake with daily special menu, exclusively developed by Chef Kim herself.
At the special exhibition hall, visitors will find architectural works, as well as design pieces, videos and works from other creative fields – all bound to stimulate the interest of younger art enthusiasts. The first exhibition, featuring works by Spanish painter and sculptor Jaume Plensa, hints at the sort of scale and quality art fans can expect to see at PARADISE CITY in the very near future.

Exhibitions at PARADISE ART SPACE will be designed to coincide with the openings of other facilities and make collaborations with the resort complex. Guests will be able to enjoy high-level entertainment, hospitality, shopping and more – while taking in the impressive art on display.

PARADISE ART SPACE aims to display art that the public truly wishes to experience, and will strive to become a leader in exhibition trends. All this – and plenty more – is on its way, starting this September!

In September of 2018, PARADISE CITY will unveil a new section of its art-tainment resort, including the PARADISE ART SPACE. Notable artworks will be exhibited at the venue, while pieces by renowned contemporary artists will also be displayed all throughout the resort. Take a sneak peek at some of the art that will be on show: work that transcends borders, genres and form.

PARADISE ART SPACE is a gallery that caters to the tastes of modern art enthusiasts. Instead of creating yet another stuffy, sterile hall for pretentious art fans, the venue aims to make culture fun and engaging with exciting attractions for modern muse-goers. This accessible venue is a perfect spot for trend-seeking art enthusiasts. Designers of the venue have formulated a plan that involves creating distinct, separate areas. Permanent PARADISE CITY collection items are displayed alongside special exhibitions by trending artists, with new exhibits coming in throughout the year.

JEFF KOONS

Superstar Artist Line-up 1 — Jeff Koons

PARADISE CITY already boasts an impressive line-up of artists whose works adorn the resort. This all-star group includes the likes of Damien Hirst, Koos Aan de Wetering, and Ugo Rondinone. And the good news? There are plenty more to come. The works of Jeff Koons, one of the most sought-after artists in the world, will also soon be on display at PARADISE ART SPACE. Just as Damien Hirst’s “Golden Legend” sets the tone in the lobby of Art Garden South, similarly, the work of Jeff Koons will be installed in the Sky Park — a testament to modern Korean art.

PARADISE CITY is a great supporter of the domestic K-art scene and aims to expose the world to more Korean artists with its forthcoming new wings. Superstar Artist Line-up 3 — Lee Yong-baek

First Exhibition: Jaume Plensa Showcase

The aforementioned PARADISE ART SPACE inaugural special exhibition features influential works created by modern artist Jaume Plensa. This monumental show will be the artist’s first in Korea, and will be significant for many reasons.

The Korean public knows Jaume Plensa best for his large Hangeul (Korean alphabet) theme piece, which currently stands in front of the Lotte World Tower in Jamsil, Seoul. His public art pieces have been displayed in major international metropolitan centers like Rio de Janeiro, Calgary, New York and Tokyo. His international reputation continues to grow as his art reaches new audiences. Plensa’s many sculptures shaped to look like young girls’ heads have become trademarks, but the true power of his art lies beyond its technical merits.

His works transform spaces into new vistas, bringing new vitality and life to city residents. One of his pieces, “Dream,” was installed in Liverpool, in the United Kingdom, in 2009. The work has come to represent the changing aspirations of the city’s residents, as Liverpool transforms from a former industrial port city into a modern, commercial hub. Another work by Jaume Plensa, “Anna B. in Blue,” is currently on display in PARADISE CITY’s first floor Red Wing corridor, which connects the WOW ZONE with the CONVENTION center. The female subject’s softly closed eyes create a serene and almost magical atmosphere. As “Anna B. in Blue” demonstrates, Jaume Plensa does not merely create large, imposing sculptures, but rather seeks to convey new energy. The philosophy behind each piece involves a quest to unlock and magnify the hidden potential of space, and move the hearts of those who gaze upon it. This is an artist who deliberately dedicates himself to leave a lasting impression on his public. In fact, all of Jaume Plensa’s pieces epitomize this same spirit – regardless of their size, material or medium.

Plensa’s exhibition in PARADISE ART SPACE is especially meaningful, considering it is his first in Korea. The venue will be displaying not only his famous sculptures, but also a wide range of the artist’s drawings and props, offering an intimate look at the creative process that goes into Plensa’s work.

The exhibition will mark the start of a whole host of showcases from globally recognized artists. The art here is bound to both appeal and entertain – stirring vivid emotions for all sorts of visitors.
Current JYJ and former TVXQ member Kim Jae-joong has been busy since he was discharged from military service in December 2016. At the end of January 2018, he began a solo international tour, starting in Seoul, then heading to Yokohama, Osaka, Nagoya and Saitama in Japan. In March, he moved on to China. His two-year absence had fans eagerly awaiting his return to the stage. Jae-joong's international fan base is both strong and loyal, and, along with EXO's Sehun, Hwang Chi-yeol, BTS's Jeonggook and Lee Jong-seok, he can certainly be counted among the international community's top five best-loved male Korean stars.

Jae-joong has won a reputation for his undying devotion to his fans. One of his most notable recent public events was a fan meeting held at PARADISE CITY’s GRAND BALLROOM. Here, over 500 fans from around the world gathered to meet their hero and witness the Korea Tourism Organization (KTO) present him with a certificate of appreciation.

The KTO rewarded the star for his outstanding work in the field of promoting Korean culture to international audiences. Some say Jae-joong took the time to thank each and every one of his fans that day.

What's more, Jae-joong proudly represents PARADISE CITY as an honorary ambassador. His recent appearances in PARADISE CITY advertisements have garnered much attention from fans – both in Korea and beyond.
Lee Dong-gun and Jo Yoon-hee, the duo whose on-screen passion crossed over into real-life love, recently participated in their first photo shoot as a couple at PARADISE CITY. Pictures from the shoot were featured on the cover of hit fashion magazine “GRAZIA Korea.” Those who witnessed the shoot say that the couple’s love for one another was palpable! The images reveal romance at its peak, with Lee Dong-gun and Jo Yoon-hee embracing and gazing affectionately into each other’s eyes. Without a doubt, one of the biggest highlights was Jo Yoon-hee’s wedding dress. Standing in front of the PARADISE CITY Pool Villa in this eye-catching white dress on a beautiful spring day was a delight to behold for all.

Movie director Park Chan-wook and actor Yoo Ji-tae joined forces for a photo shoot for men’swear brand Ermenegildo Zegna at PARADISE CITY. The shoot was part of Zegna’s global Defining Moments campaign, which also featured Robert DeNiro and Benjamin Millepied. Park Chan-wook and Yoo Ji-tae’s own “defining moment” involved recreating a scene from the director’s internationally acclaimed film, “Old Boy,” which starred Yoo Ji-tae. The duo were happy to catch up, helping provide a natural atmosphere for the cameras. The luxurious Ermenegildo Zegna suits were a perfect pairing with the PARADISE CITY backdrop.
